

Contemporary Christianity invites you to a Retreat By the Sea

7th and 8th November, 2012
at GLENADA, Newcastle.

“Come away by yourselves to a quiet place
and take time to rest”

In our culture of busyness and activism, leaders need to remember the pattern of Jesus' ministry - the way in which he modelled leadership and taught His disciples - a ministry of grace in a culture of busyness.

We are creating an opportunity for leaders in Christian work to examine the landscape of their own hearts - between the Mountains and the Sea.

An intentional time to seek God, rest, reflect and be refreshed including time for guided personal reflection, sharing with others and input from Roy Searle

The retreat is open to all involved in any form of Christian ministry or leadership who want to deepen awareness of how we look after ourselves and others in the midst of busy lives

Roy Searle is a founder leader of the Northumbria Community and former President of the Baptist Union of Great Britain. He has wide experience as a church leader, as well as helping leaders explore the spiritual life.

Timings:

From 10.30am on the 7th until 4.30pm on the 8th November.

Cost (incl meals):

Single room: £95 per person
Twin room: £85 per person.

Deposit: £20 per person (non refundable)

Book online: www.contemporarychristianity.net
by email: info@contemporarychristianity.net
by post: Contemporary Christianity, 3rd Floor, 21 Ormeau Avenue, Belfast, BT2 8HD

Book Early to avoid disappointment. Places limited to 25 people.