

Contemporary Christianity
Annual Catherwood Lecture in Public Theology

JUSTICE, MERCY AND WALKING WITH GOD:
THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH AND THE FUTURE OF RECONCILIATION IN NORTHERN IRELAND

David W Porter

David Porter is well known as a co-founder and then Director of ECONI (Evangelical Contribution on N Ireland). He has served on the N Ireland Community Relations Council, the N Ireland Civic Forum and the independent Consultative Group on the Past (Eames/Bradley). He represented N Ireland on the Evangelical Alliance UK Board, for three years as its chair.

Since 2008, David has been the Canon Director for Reconciliation Ministry at Coventry Cathedral and in February 2013 was appointed the Archbishop of Canterbury's Director for Reconciliation. In Lambeth he is one of three advisors supporting Archbishop Justin Welby.

2013 marks 25 years since the publication of “For God and His Glory Alone”, the landmark publication which shaped the work of the Evangelical Contribution on Northern Ireland (ECONI). We are really delighted to welcome David back as our guest speaker at this time.

This is an open event. There will be a response given by Dr Heather Morris (Methodist President) and a time for questions and discussion.

Thursday, 10 October 2013 at 8pm

SKAINOS, 239 Newtownards Road
Belfast, BT4 1HB
(Served by Metro bus routes 3A & 20)

For further information contact:

Contemporary Christianity, Third Floor, 21 Ormeau Ave, BELFAST, BT2 8HD

E: info@contemporarychristianity.net W: www.contemporarychristianity.net T: 028 9032 5258

