What is the role of Christian academics and postgraduates in the building of the Kingdom of God? How can the church support those in academia? Can Christian academics and students contribute to the life of the church and if so, how?

This Conference, a joint venture between Transforming the Mind, Contemporary Christianity and IFES Ireland, invites you to look at the place of Christian students/postgraduates and academics in the body of Christ and in building God's Kingdom.

Registration: To help us plan the event, please register using the details below (note that late registration will also be available on the day).
