

Contemporary Christianity
Annual Catherwood Lecture in Public Theology

RE-NARRATING HUMAN RIGHTS: DISPELLING MYTHS, CHALLENGING HYPOCRISY

Vinoth Ramachandra

We are delighted to have a distinguished international Christian enabler and activist on a range of ethical issues as our guest speaker. There will be a local responder to Vinoth's lecture and then an opportunity for questions and discussion.

Vinoth Ramachandra lives in Sri Lanka. He holds both bachelors and doctoral degrees in nuclear engineering from the University of London. He currently serves on the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students (IFES) Senior Leadership Team as Secretary for Dialogue & Social Engagement.

*Vinoth has been involved for many years with the Civil Rights Movement in Sri Lanka, as well as with the global Micah Network and A Rocha (a world-wide biodiversity conservation organization). He is the author of several essays, articles and books including The Message of Mission (2003), Subverting Global Myths: Theology and the Public Issues that Shape Our World (2008) and Church and Mission in the New Asia (2009).*

Thursday, 26 June 2014 at 8pm

The Agape Centre, 238 Lisburn Road
Belfast, BT9 6GF
(Served by Metro bus route 9)
