

IN THESE TIMES... GOING BEYOND BENEVOLENCE?

The poor you will always have with you.

- Jesus Christ

How do/should we respond to such POVERTY all around us?

Tuesday 25th February 2025

Venue: Ulster University New Campus, York Street, Belfast

Room: BD.01.114

Tea/coffee from 6.30pm Programme 7.00-8.45 pm.

Join us for purposeful discussions around Poverty and the NI Programme for Government (PFG), Poverty and our Communities, and Poverty and the Church. We will be helped to dig deeper into the Bible's teaching on poverty, and then discuss it.

Speakers: We are delighted to have David Campton lead the Digging Deeper into Scripture. Norman Hamilton will comment on the PFG, Brian Anderson on the Churches, and Gerardine Cunningham on the Community.

David is Superintendent of Belfast Central Mission; Brian is from East Belfast Mission, and Gerardine is from Saint Vincent de Paul, and all are active in the Coalition of Christian voices against Poverty in NI.*

Arranged in partnership with the Coalition of Christian Voices against Poverty*

Please plan to join us for this evening.

Bookings are free so bring a friend!

Scan the QR code to visit our Eventbrite page or register by email at info@contemporarychristianity.net

Transport: Metro buses serve the Ulster University York Street Campus and off street car-parking is available. Two disabled car park spaces are adjacent to the entrance.

For further information please contact Contemporary Christianity using the email above or by telephone (028) 9066 3145.

COME, LISTEN, ENGAGE